

Local Attractions

Powis Castle

Powis Castle, located near Welshpool, is a must-visit destination for anyone traveling to Wales. This breathtaking historic site is steeped in history and adorned with exquisite paintings, antique furniture, and fascinating artifacts. The castle is also home to the Clive of India Museum, offering a deeper glimpse into its storied past.

The beautifully terraced gardens provide stunning views of the expansive lawns, while the surrounding parkland—where deer and other wildlife roam freely—creates a serene atmosphere. Just a ten-minute walk from Welshpool's town center, the castle is perfect for active explorers, with lakes, woodlands, and scenic trails waiting to be discovered.

After a day of exploration, visitors can unwind in the charming courtyard, which features a café, a tea room, and a delightful gift shop.

Welshpool and Llanfair Light Railway

The journey begins on the outskirts of Welshpool, leading travelers through the picturesque patchwork of Mid Wales countryside. Following the winding path of the River Banwy, the route meanders toward the charming town of Llanfair Caereinion.

Passengers can enjoy breathtaking views from the open-balcony carriages, offering a unique and immersive experience of this idyllic landscape. Whether soaking in the rolling hills or the tranquil riverside scenery, this scenic journey is a true delight for nature lovers and adventurers alike.

For more information visit: <https://wllr.org.uk/>

Montgomery

The historic county town of Montgomeryshire, boasts a rich heritage dating back to Roman times. Overlooking the picturesque Mid Wales Marches countryside, the striking 13th-century Montgomery Castle dominates the skyline, offering breathtaking views and a glimpse into the town's storied past.

Visitors will be captivated by Montgomery's charming Georgian square and elegant town architecture. A trip to this delightful town isn't complete without exploring The Old Bell Museum, which provides a fascinating insight into Montgomery's history. The intriguing Robber's Grave in the churchyard adds an air of mystery, while food lovers can indulge in the various food and drink places Montgomery has to offer including the Michelin-starred Checkers Restaurant.

For more information visit: <https://www.montgomery-wales.co.uk/>

Andrew Logan Museum

The Andrew Logan Museum of Sculpture offers a captivating and immersive experience, blending entertainment, sentiment, humor, and fantasy in a way that delights visitors of all ages.

Inside, you'll discover an eclectic collection of sculptures, mirrored portraits, watercolours, jewelry, and photographs spanning from the mid-1960s to the present day. Highlights include the mesmerizing Cosmic Egg, the enchanting Living Taj Mahal, and the visionary Egypt Revisited, all inspired by Andrew Logan's extraordinary journeys. This unique museum is a celebration of creativity, imagination, and artistic wonder.

For more information visit: <https://andrewloganmuseum.org/home/>

Dingle Gardens

The internationally acclaimed RHS Partner Garden at The Dingle is the lifelong masterpiece of Barbara and Roy Joseph. Spanning 4.5 acres, this breathtaking garden is now lovingly maintained by their grandson Duncan, his wife Clare, and the dedicated Joseph family.

Renowned for its striking colour-themed and diverse planting, the garden features a captivating mix of lakeside, lawned, and mixed-bed areas. A rich variety of shrubs, trees, and herbaceous plants create an ever-changing tapestry of textures and hues. The stream-fed lake, teeming with plant life, transforms this sheltered dingle into a haven for wildlife, making it an idyllic retreat for nature lovers.

Whether you're birdwatching, enjoying a leisurely stroll, letting children explore hidden dens, indulging in a peaceful picnic, or seeking inspiration for your own garden, The Dingle offers a truly magical experience for visitors of all ages.

For more information visit: <https://dinglenurseryandgarden.co.uk/>

